T A ELLEMENT & SON LTD E SPARK LTD

The Ellement family has been Funeral Directors in Pinner for five generations, and have owned E. Spark Ltd in Northwood for over 35 years. In October 2008 a management buyout was negotiated as sadly there were no longer any members of the Ellement family directly involved in the business.

The company is now owned and run by Mr Kim Carnague, Mrs Jeanette Carnague, their daughter, Mrs Victoria Carnague-Winchcombe and their son-in-law Ross Carnague-Winchcombe, thus ensuring the company's continuance as an independent family owned and run business.

Our service and reputation are well known throughout the area and further afield. We are here to offer a high quality service and to assist wherever it is required. Please do not hesitate to contact us with any queries prior to or at the time of death. Our staff are qualified to answer all queries and to assist with all the arrangements from start to finish to ensure that everything runs smoothly.

All our offices are open Monday–Thursday 9.00am–5.00pm, and Friday 9.00am - 4.30pm.

Saturday's by appointment only.

Sunday closed.

We are available to bring your loved one into our care 24 hours a day 7 days a week.

We have a dedicated out of hours telephone service. Please ring any of the branch phone numbers which are on the front of this brochure.

We hope this booklet will be a helpful
guide to those who have suffered a bereavement

What do I do now?

Someone very dear to you has passed away:

At Home:

Call your doctor's surgery for your GP or a locum to visit and certify that death has occurred. Telephone your chosen Funeral Director for further advice as to what to do next. They will be able to arrange to come and collect the deceased at a suitably convenient time and take them into their care. You may call at any time of the day or night.

At a Nursing Home:

The Nursing Home staff will make all the immediate necessary arrangements for certification. They will also contact a Funeral Director of your choice, who will bring your loved one into their care. You can then contact the Funeral Director when you are ready, for further help and advice.

At Hospital:

The Hospital Staff will make all arrangements for certification of cause of death and can make arrangements for you to spend some time with your loved one if they have the necessary facilities. The Hospital Staff will also advise you of when to visit the Bereavement Office/Patient Affairs Office to collect the medical certificate of cause of death. Please be advised that should death occur during a weekend or Public Holiday there may be a slight delay before you are able to collect the certificate. Contact your chosen Funeral Director who will then advise and help you as to what to do next.

A sudden or unexpected death:

Any death that occurs suddenly or unexpectedly whether at home, following an operation possibly, or an accident will be reported to the Coroner. This will also be the case if someone is in hospital less than 24 hours prior to death.

If this is necessary he/she will usually be contacted either by your GP, the hospital doctor or the police. Once a Coroner is involved he may wish to conduct a post mortem in order to establish the cause of death but you will be informed if this is the case.

The Coroner's Officer will keep you informed of the procedures but you may wish to contact your Funeral Director for further assistance and advice.

A Coroner's post mortem may result in the holding of an inquest and depending on the outcome may possibly delay the funeral but the Coroner's Officer will speak to you about this.

Registration of Death

Registration of the death will always take place in the area where death has occurred and needs to be done within 5 days. The cost of the certificates are £12.50 each if bought on the day.

Clarification of which Registrar of Births and Deaths to attend can be obtained from your Funeral Director, the Nursing Home, Hospital Patient Affairs Officer/Bereavement Office or the Coroner's Officer.

We have listed the details of our most local Registrars of Births and Deaths and the information you will be required to take with you.

Details required by Registrar:
Medical Certificate of cause of death
Full name and address of deceased
Date and place of birth
Occupation
Maiden name if applicable
Spouse's full name and occupation
Medical card if available

Certificates provided by the Registrar of Deaths and their uses

Certificate for Burial or Cremation—this is a Green coloured document which is required by the Funeral Director.

A white form which is required for Social Security purposes.

Certified Copy of Entry of Death—this will be required for probate purposes, by banks, building societies, insurance companies, etc.

You will more than likely need several copies of this so it is best to order them whilst at the Registrar's to save any delay later. A photocopy will not be accepted in place of an original.

Should a Coroner's post mortem have taken place then the Coroner's Officer will advise you when and where to attend for registration.

If a burial is the chosen form for the funeral then in most cases the above documents will be issued.

If cremation is the chosen form for the funeral then the Certificate for Burial or Cremation will not be issued but a different form will be issued direct to the Funeral Director.

However if there is to be an inquest then the Certified Copy of Entry of Death will be replaced by an interim certificate.

The Next Step

You will now be giving some thought as to the type of funeral that would be most appropriate for your loved one.

It may well be that your loved one has left specific instructions with regard to the type and format for their funeral. This may be in the form of instructions in their will or it may be in the form of a Prepayment Funeral Plan. If this is the case then some of your thinking work is taken care of and you can go to the Funeral Director armed with instructions and if necessary Prepayment Plan certificates.

If your loved one has not left any specific instructions then the choice will be up to you as to whether the funeral is a burial or a cremation and where it is to take place. Your Funeral Director will be able to guide you on this and we will also make all the necessary bookings for you. It is usually best to allow them to do this as it will entail liaising with churches, celebrants, cemeteries or crematoria in order to get the day and time mutually convenient to all. They would of course discuss suitable days and times with you first.

A funeral does not have to be religious and does not have to include a full church service. Your Funeral Director will be happy to discuss all the options with you and help you to work out what is going to constitute the most appropriate funeral for your loved one.

When you are ready to make the funeral arrangements please telephone the Funeral Director of your choice to arrange a mutually convenient appointment for you to attend one of their Funeral Homes, or to arrange for someone to visit you in the comfort of your own home.

Our telephones are manned for emergency help and enquiries 24 hours, 7 days per week.

Things to do after death

Car Insurance:

You are not legally insured to drive if the Policy is in the name of the deceased.

Social Services/District Nurse:

Return equipment and cancel any Hospital and/or doctor's appointments.

Contact the deceased's Employer or professional Association together with the Inland Revenue.

Social Security:

Cancel any direct payment into bank/building society accounts etc.

Local Government:

Cancel Housing/Rates benefits.

Notify the Gas and Electricity boards and also the telephone company - this may be to cancel amenities or amend account details.

Contact the Post Office to redirect mail if necessary (a small charge is made for this service). We can also provide you with details to enable cancellation of unwanted mail addressed to the deceased.

Contact Credit Card companies, Banks and Building Societies even if accounts are in joint names, as you will need to amend the details.

Investments and Insurance policies:

Premium Bonds are not transferable but the Post Office will provide you with a form for completion and submission to the Bonds and Stock Office.

Items to be returned

Passport, Driving Licence, Vehicle Registration documents, car insurance policies, TV Licence, Season tickets and any club membership cards, all National Insurance papers.

Some of our Services

Part of making arrangements for the funeral of your loved one will include discussing the type of service required i.e. burial or cremation, location for funeral service, choice of coffin including eco-friendly options, choice of celebrant (religious or non-religious), choice/number of vehicles required apart from the Hearse, etc.

We have qualified staff who will take time and trouble to go through everything with you and answer your queries. Our brochures show the choice of coffins available but should there be something you are specifically looking for but it is not in our brochure then we will try to accommodate your wishes. You will also be shown a choice of gowns for your loved one or you may provide us with their own clothes. We also have a choice of caskets or urns for cremated remains and temporary grave markers should you require them.

You will always be given an estimate of costs when you visit our offices to make provisional arrangements and you will be asked to sign showing acceptance of our Terms and Conditions. Once the funeral is fully confirmed you will receive a confirmation letter together with another estimate. You are free at any time to make alterations within reason and we will do our utmost to comply with your wishes.

Upon acceptance of our Terms and Conditions we do ask for a deposit to cover the estimated third party costs or disbursements and 50% of our charges. We accept bank transfers, cash, cheques, debit/credit cards, but unfortunately we cannot accept American Express.

We can also help you with any extra services you may require for example:

Cremated Remains and Memorials

After the funeral there may be decisions to be made regarding the disposal of the cremated remains. This can be done either by scattering in the crematorium gardens of remembrance, interment in a columbarium or in a grave. You may even like to have them at home.

Please feel free to ask about the different options available and we will be happy to assist you in any way we can and if needs be can make any necessary arrangements with third parties.

We have a selection of urns and caskets available including those in solid wood, cast bronze, woven willow or bamboo. We also have a selection of keepsakes available.

If your chosen funeral was a burial you may wish to consider having a memorial placed on the grave. We have oak or sapele wood crosses as temporary markers with small inscription plates on and we have brochures for permanent memorials. Please feel free to ask the staff for any assistance.

Words of Comfort

We have reproduced the following poems/pieces of prose which we hope you may find of comfort or and which you may like to incorporate in the funeral service.

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on the snow,
I am the sun on the ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft starlight at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.

You can shed tears that she has gone,
Or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray she'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
Or your heart can be full of the love you've shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live for yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she's gone,
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what she'd want: Smile, open your eyes, love and journey on.

E.Sparks competent, efficient and professional.

I found E Sparks very professional, understanding and helpful at a difficult time in our lives. We were gently guided through making the arrangements and then they were expertly and professionally executed. The recommended celebrant (John Graham) was very good and personalised the funeral to the point that several funeral attendees asked how long he had known Dad, when he had never met him. We had a good balance of saying goodbye and celebrating his life, the sad and the uplifting to have known him.

For the love of Barbara.

In 2017 my mum and family were supported through my dad's funeral arrangements by this kind and professional family company. So recently, when my mum sadly passed away, I knew exactly who to call for help through this painful experience. Their words of comfort and guidance, gently given at a very hard time were so kind and I will always be grateful to everyone I spoke to in person and on the phone. The day itself, went as well as it could and again this was owing to all the support I received. Thank you.

EXCELLENT T A ELLEMENT & SON LTD!

It is never easy having to walk into a funeral directors, but from the first greeting by Marie in the Ruislip branch we felt totally at home. Marie is an absolute credit to your company with all the qualities a family needs at a difficult time. She shows compassion, understanding, kindness and has such a warm personality. Your branch also needs to be credited with having such a calm place in which to discuss funeral arrangements. The cosy seating and pleasant decor is comforting, especially when we as a family have experienced less inviting funeral undertakers in the past. On the day of the funeral we could not have asked for better staff to look after us. Thank you all for your kindness and thoughtfulness.

A total charm from start to finish. Nothing was too much or too difficult for them to do. Made planning a funeral almost a pleasure. I can't thank them or praise them highly enough. They looked after my brother and all of us so well. Many grateful thanks. I will recommend them in a heartbeat.

First class service

I would highly recommend T A Ellement in Pinner for your funeral director.

Amanda was very personable and had such a lovely way with her.

Obviously this is a very emotional time and she made everything so easy for us.

Nothing was too much trouble. She also produced an excellent order of service which we were very proud of. On the day of the funeral,

Ross was on hand to help us navigate such a sad day.

Again he had a lovely way with him and was very kind to my Mother, taking her arm to greet mourners.

Thank you so much TA Ellement for giving my Father a first class send off.

Can't thank them enough for being so kind, caring, understanding & respectful.

Nothing was too much trouble. I especially like to say a big thankyou to Heather as she was fantastic.

Excellent service

Words cannot describe the service we received from start to finish with this amazing company. Victoria and her amazing team were the most compassionate warm people who in ones hour of need and grief is priceless.

Victoria was there for us every step of our journey.

Nothing was too much trouble .everything was done to perfection with a personal touch. Loosing a loved one esp a father is very traumatic but the service we received helped ease the pressure we were made to feel.

We were the only ones unrushed, listened to again nothing too much trouble.

Its the little things that matter offering momentum like lock of hair happy to transfer ashes into our urn. It really was first class service and I have to say our daddy looked amazing in the Chapel of rest again Victoria and her team did us proud.

No question was left unanswered in fact the response time to a question was almost instant. I can't praise recommend and thank this amazing team to be honest

I don't think anyone could compare to them

A Perfect Send Off For Mum

A big thank you for Amanda, Louise and the staff at TA Ellement in Pinner.

They made sure Mum had a beautiful and perfect send off.

Their help with arranging her funeral was much appreciated and nothing was too much trouble. They walked us through the entire process, from start to finish, with as much care, kindness and compassion as if it had been their own mother. On the day of the funeral, the staff were very respectful and helped us throughout the service. The celebrant, Stephanie, wrote an amazing eulogy and it felt that she had known mum for many years.

The flowers, by Linda, were beautiful and colourful, just how mum would have liked them. I would totally recommend TA Ellement as they steered us through the funeral arrangements at what was such a difficult and emotional time for us as a family.
